

Practica 2: What we're going to build.

My team "RED" is planning to build a project named "E-Commerce con Seguimiento de Clientes", the project will be about an online store that will sell and notify to clients new versions of products that have a probability to be products of interest to the client, determined by the client's purchases.

